Honorable George A. Smathers
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Smathers:

Since we wrote to you on 20 February concerning the immediate outcome of our interview with [redacted] we have completed a review of her application with interested officials. There appears to be no immediate opening which would accommodate her employment and a copy of our letter advising her of this result is enclosed for your files.

It is possible that an appropriate vacancy for her might arise in the future and we have invited her to visit our office again, should she have occasion to be in Washington, in order to discuss such prospects with her.

Your referral of [redacted] was appreciated and we shall advise you if we are able to offer her employment at some future date.

Sincerely,

John S. Warner
Legislative Counsel

STAT

Since we wrote to you on 1 March regarding your application for employment with this Agency, we have concluded our review of your file with interested officials. There appears to be no immediate opening which would be suited to your qualifications and experience.

In spite of this negative finding, we would like to invite you to call at our personnel office again if you should have an occasion to visit Washington in the next several months. One of the officials who reviewed your file noted your background with particular interest and, although there is no specific opening under consideration, suggested that further interviews might be helpful in exploring future possibilities here for you. Without some specific opening in mind for you, however, we cannot invite you to make this trip at Government expense and would not ask you to go to this expense yourself unless other business brought you to Washington.

Your interest in our organization is appreciated and we regret to advise you that the present outlook for your service with us is not encouraging. We have recorded your name for future consideration and shall get in touch with you if a suitable opening should occur.

Sincerely,

E. D. Echols
Director of Personnel
